

I'll Trust Him Forevermore

(The Psalm of Nephi)

Steve Mortensen

$\text{♩} = 74$

1. My soul de-light-eth in the word of God and
2. The Lord hath led me through af-flic-tions sore and
3. In con-de-sen-sion He re-veals His love and 4. Be-cause my heart is bro-ken and con-trite I fol-low-ing His path be-side the i-ron rod. But then when I de-He pro-tec-ted me while pass-ing through the storm. His love hath con-sumed my those who seek Him will be lif-ted from a-bove. Why shall I waste a-plead-ing seek the strength to fol-low in Thy light. Wilt Thou pro-TECT me si-re to re-joice, my song of praise is raised with trem-b-ling in my voice. Yea, flesh in ho-li-ness and the Ho-ly Ghost to me hath been a sweet wit-ness. By way and lin-ger more when He in-vi-teth me to feast u-pon His word. My from de-sign-ing men? Wilt Thou make me trem-ble at the ver-y thought of sin? I my heart griev-eth be-cause of my flesh and those temp-ta-tions that so day I wor-shipped and knelt at His feet, and He hath mi-ni-stered in soul re-joic-es when He bids me come. Oh, a-wake and a-rise! and long to live in Thy e-ter-nal bliss. I know Thou gi-vest those who ea-si-ly be-set. But none-the-less I know in whom I po-wer un-to me. And thus I know that God is my sup-look un-to the Son. Re-joice my heart and cry un-to the ask Thee not a-miss. I'll put my trust in Thee for-e-ver-trust. I'll trust Him for-e-ver-more. port. I'll trust Him for-e-ver-more.

 Lord. I'll trust Him for-e-ver-more.
 more. For-e-ver and e-ver more.