Doctrine and Covenants

The entire book of Doctrine and Covenants can be viewed and searched on the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints website at www.lds.org.

The Photographs

I created an interactive Church history CD-ROM containing hundreds of high-resolution color photographs for use in gospel instruction and study. All the photographs from Doctrine and Covenants Revelation Sites are included on the disc, plus several hundred additional images of important locations in LDS Church history. More than 60 of these photographs are featured on the Church's Joseph Smith website. If you would like more information about the CD-ROM, please write to info@dcsites.com.

LDS Church History

For more information about LDS Church history, my first recommendation is the official Joseph Smith website, which is an authoritative source of information about the life of the Prophet. It can be accessed at www.lds.org. The website tells the story of the most important locations in Joseph's life, and associates each location with specific gospel principles applicable in daily life. I was a member of the committee that developed this information for the LDS Church. There are also many excellent books on the subject. Some of my recommendations are listed below.

- The Revelations of the Prophet Joseph Smith, by Lyndon W. Cook
- Revelations of the Restoration, by Joseph Fielding McConkie and Craig Ostler
- Old Mormon Kirtland, Nauvoo, and Palmyra, by Richard Holzapfel and Jeffery Cottle
- Sacred Places, Volumes 1-4, by LaMar Berrett
- Joseph Smith's Kirtland, by Karl Ricks Anderson
- American Prophet, Sacred Stone, and Trail of Hope, by Heidi Swinton
- Personal Writings of Joseph Smith, by Dean C. Jessee
- Hyrum Smith, A Life of Integrity, by Jeffrey S. O'Driscoll
- The LDS Family Travel Guides, by Becky Cardon Smith
- Church History in the Fulness of Times, by the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints
